Texell Credit Union Presents Social Security Strategies Seminar

Temple, TX (September 4, 2024) – Texell Credit Union will host a social security seminar on Tuesday, September 17 from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. Held in the 1948 Room at Texell’s Headquarters in Temple, the cost to attend is $5 and includes a light meal.

Presented by Steve Tatro, AIF, Consultant and Owner of Retirement Resources, this seminar covers important questions about retirement benefits, including:

1. What is the best age to retire?
2. Should couples file for benefits together or separately?
3. Should you work after retirement?

With more than 20 years of experience in retirement resources, Steve Tatro offers a variety of services and solutions to prepare for the next step in life and help others meet their retirement goals.

“Filing for social security benefits is an important step in your financial journey,” said Amy Merriman, Texell’s Chief Operating Officer. “We’re excited to offer this learning opportunity for Texell members and the community to make the most informed decision during this process.”
